

Practical Information

INRAE @ Antony (south Paris)

Address

1 rue Pierre-Gilles de Gennes, 92160 Antony

Phone: +33 (0) 1 40 96 61 21

Opening hours

From Monday to Friday

08:15 - 12:15

13:30 - 18:00

Visitors: an ID card will be asked at the front desk

How to come to INRAE

By plane:

- The closest airport is the “Orly Airport (ORY)”. If you arrive by this airport, you can take the shuttle (“Orlyval”) to the station “Antony” (about 10 min). From there to INRAE, you can take a bus (line 286) or walk (20 min)
- If you arrive by “Charles de Gaulle Airport (CDG)”, you can take the RER B (suburban train) and get off at station “Antony” (about 1 hour). From there to INRAE, you can take a bus (line 286) or walk (20 min)

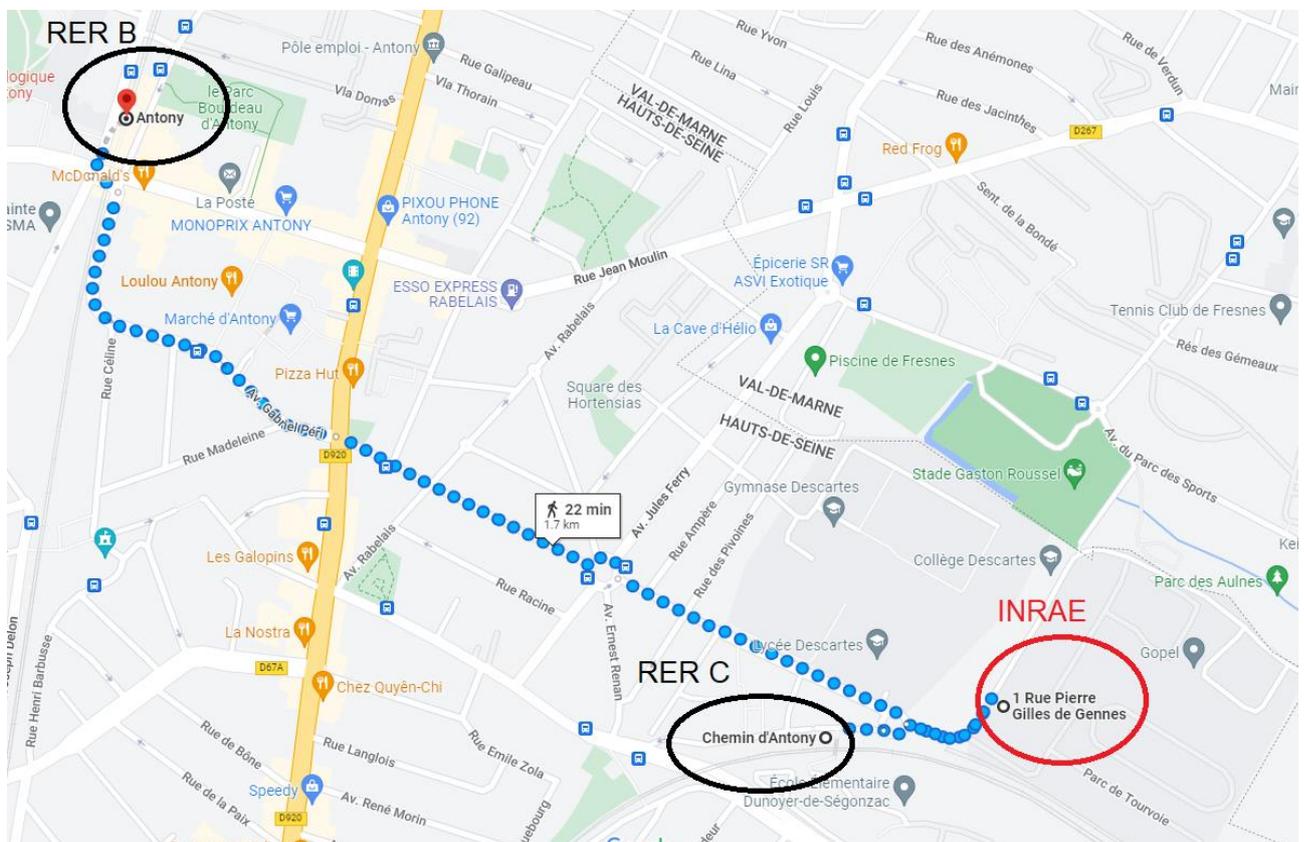

By public transportation from Paris:

If you are coming from Paris, e.g. by train, you can:

- take RER C suburban train (check the stations in Paris: <https://www.transilien.com/fr/page-lignes/ligne-c>) and get off at “Chemin d’Antony” (travel takes about 30min; 1 train every 30 min), and then walk (5 min)
- take RER B suburban train (check the stations in Paris: <https://www.transilien.com/fr/page-lignes/ligne-b>) and get off at “Antony” (travel takes about 20 min; 1 train every 5-8 min), and then walk (20 min)
- For both suburban trains and for general public transportation in Paris, check <https://www.ratp.fr/>

Map:

Walking from RER B station “Antony” or from RER C station “Chemin d’Antony” to INRAE

Google Map: <https://goo.gl/maps/KAF7N89oxZtTGv4x5>